

1. Rules of Conduct:

All students enrolling into our online learning must understand that the interaction between the student and education works slight differently than the regular face to face interaction in a classroom setting. In simple words: you access the program by using your computer or desktop or laptop via the internet. It is important for students to understand that online education requires focus and dedication from your end. The chances of program completion increase when you are focused and spend the duration allotted for the program appropriately while completing the given coursework in the timeframe designated for the enrolled program.

Before you can begin the program, you must agree to the honor codes listed below.

I (student) enrolled in the program agree that I will:

1. Personally, Login to my account to access my coursework given to me.
2. I will not share my account username and password with an individual for completing the program coursework on my behalf.
3. Understand that it is my responsibility to complete my coursework, this may include, reading, taking quizzes and other coursework within the program.
4. When emailing or talking to the school staff, I will show respect and professionalism and not use abusive language, or any type of disrespectful words.
5. I will not intimidate or demean or disrespect any staff member of new educare.
6. I will not commit any act of plagiarism for any assignment.
7. I will be responsible and will be held accountable for my academic or unprofessional actions.
8. I will not cheat or lie for taking academic advantage.
9. I will comply with any instructions given to me by the staff of the school.

CONTINUE TO PAGE.....2

2. Violations:

If you are found in any type of violation mentioned in the HONOR CODE, you may be subject to one or more of the following actions set by the school:

- Access to the program will be terminated;
- No longer will be able to continue the program;
- Receive zero grades for the assignment;

There may be other consequential actions that may be taken at the discretion of the school.

3. Intellectual Property:

All the materials that you will access in this program are an intellectual property of the school or its affiliated parties, you will always refrain from copying contents and using them for commercial gains without proper written authorization from the school. You must also not disclose contents or sell contents found within the program for any reason to anyone.

If you agree to all the above,
you may continue with the program modules.